Time for a change: Former MS-Intense Factory-Racing now Evil Bikes/ MS-Racing Team

February 25th, 2009

Yes we can!

This might have been the motto behind the recent move of MS-Racing masterminds Markus Stoeckl and Lukas Haider. After 2008 UCI Women's 4X World Cup champion Anneke Beerten (NED) recently announced her departure from MS-Racing, rumours about some major changes within the team became noticeable. Video: Rider's Profile Matti Lehtikainen

July 9th, 2008

The 2007 racing season was the most successful chapter of Matti Lehtikainen's career as a professional mountain bike downhill racer so far. Being part of the legendary Honda Racing Team he finished second in the men's downhill World Cup overall ranking, winning the infamous mud battle race in Champéry (SUI).

Everything seemed perfect until a couple of days after the final World Cup round in Maribor (SLO) when Matti practiced on his home track near Helsinki (FIN). Read the rest of this entry »

July 8th, 2008

From June 5th - June 8th, 2008 the third round of the UCI MTB World Cup took place in good old Fort William (UK). Unusual sunny and dry weather welcomed the riders as well as a rough and bumpy track. The perfect chance to send MS-Intense Factory-Racing's Finnish pinner Matti Lehtikainen down the track with a helmet cam during a practice run. Read the rest of this entry »

Anneke Beerten @ MS-Intense Factory-Racing

December 14th, 2007

Although winning the 2007 UCI 4X World Cup at the last stage in Maribor (SLO) Anneke Beerten's (NED) departure from her Bikepark.ch team wasn't exactly ceremonial. Since the management of the Swiss team obviously carried its own definition of «dignified farewell» we better leave it there. Read the rest of this entry »
